Duration

Master the audit of Information Security Management Systems (ISMS) with the ISO/IEC 27001 Lead Auditor course by TRECCERT. This expert-level programme, ANAB accredited, equips professionals with the knowledge and techniques to plan, execute, and manage internal and external audits aligned with ISO/IEC 27001:2022 and ISO 19011 standards.

You'll learn how to assess the design and effectiveness of ISMS controls, lead audit teams, report findings, and guide organisations toward compliance. Upon passing the exam, you'll earn the TRECCERT ISO/IEC 27001 Lead Auditor credential — an internationally recognised validation of your ability to ensure the security and compliance of digital environments.

Certified training: ANAB, IAF
